PROWUS Scholarship Application

Application Review Process

- All applications are carefully reviewed and rated by an independent panel of reviewers with no affiliation to any music programs in the Portland Metro Area or to PROWUS.
- Scholarships are issued based upon the recommendation of the independent review panel, along with blind discussion and majority vote from the PROWUS Board Members, and subject to available funds.
- All applications are confidential and will be kept on file for 12 months.
- Notice of scholarship approval or denial will be sent approximately 4 weeks after the application due date, along with a check made out to your music instructor/school

Scholarship Acceptance Process and Requirements

If the application is accepted and a scholarship is granted to the applicant:

The applicant will receive

- an email or phone call informing them of the scholarship amount received, and
- a scholarship acceptance form via email for the applicant to sign and return to the PROWUS Grant Committee.

Upon the PROWUS Grant Committee receiving the signed acceptance form, PROWUS will send a check to the applicant's instructor in the amount granted by the PROWUS Grant Committee.

Upon accepting the scholarship:

A member of applicant's family or the applicant must be willing to volunteer at a PROWUS fundraising event or activity as needed.

- PROWUS will contact the applicant and / or family with options for fulfilling the volunteer requirement.

The applicant and parent or guardian must provide a testimonial describing the impact of the scholarship (a form will be provided to the applicant on receiving the scholarship).
